HSOV MISSION: Humane Society of the Ohio Valley exists to promote the welfare of domestic animals in Washington County, Ohio. We provide a safe haven shelter for stray, lost and /or abused animals, educate our communities on humane care for these animals, the need for population control, and the relief of suffering for them. We investigate and prosecute complaints of animal abuse and neglect as permitted by the Ohio Revised Code and provide for adoption of our animals by people who can demonstrate that they will provide care consistent with our mission.
